ARTICLE V

AAUP REPRESENTATIVES AND PRIVILEGES

5.1 The AAUP, its officers and members shall not engage in union activities, hold meetings on University property, or utilize University facilities in any way that interferes with or interrupts normal University operations or the obligations and duties of faculty members as employees.

5.2 The AAUP shall have the right to make reasonable use of University space, facilities, and equipment in accordance with University procedures, for proper activities related to its position as the recognized representative of the full-time voting faculty. AAUP shall pay reasonable costs for the use of space, facilities, and equipment.

5.3 The AAUP shall be entitled to reasonable use of the campus mail, in accordance with University procedures. The AAUP agrees to limit its use to material directly related to its function as collective bargaining agent, and agrees further that the material it distributes by campus mail will not violate reasonable standards of propriety with respect to the language employed.

5.4 The AAUP shall have the right to post at appropriate places on the campus for the benefit of the employees it represents, bulletins and notices relevant to official AAUP business, of a non-political nature, so long as these do not violate reasonable standards of propriety.

5.5 The University shall make available to the AAUP an on-campus furnished air-conditioned office of at least 100 square feet suitable for conducting official business.

5.6 The University agrees to provide, at no cost to the AAUP or its members, a complete copy of this Agreement.

5.10 The University shall make available to each member of the bargaining unit a copy of the official Handbook for Faculty and copies of modifications in the policies and practices contained therein as issued.

ARTICLE VI
BARGAINING UNIT MEMBERSHIP: LIST OF UNIT

The University will, within fifteen (15) days of the close of late registration for the Fall semester, transmit to the AAUP a list stating the name of each faculty member then in the unit, and will, by the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the effective date of any changes, send the AAUP a list of such changes. Should the AAUP disagree with such lists, it may request a meeting with the University, provided such request is made within seven (7) calendar days, to discuss and agree upon changes in the membership of the bargaining unit. A grievance by a member of the bargaining unit concerning the interpretation, application or claimed violation of the provisions of this article may be introduced directly into Step 5 of the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE VII
NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

The AAUP and the University subscribe to the principle that any and all differences under this Agreement be resolved by peaceful and legal means without interruption of the University program. The AAUP, therefore, agrees that neither it, nor any of its officers, agents, employees, or members, will instigate, engage in, support or condone any strike, work stoppage, or other concerted refusal to perform work by any employees in the bargaining unit. The University agrees that there shall be no lockout during the life of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.1 A grievance is defined as any dispute or difference concerning the interpretation, application or claimed violation of any provision of this Agreement. It is understood that this Agreement in no way diminishes the responsibility of faculty, department chairpersons, and of deans, directors and other appropriate administrative officials for the exercise of academic judgment. An appellant who has a grievance must initiate action either informally under Step 1, or in writing under Step 2, within forty-five (45) calendar days after knowledge of the occurrence of the event out of which the appeal arises. The procedures for processing complaints or problems related to terms or conditions of employment, but which are not grievances as defined above, will follow the steps set forth in 8.2 except that Step 7 is eliminated.

8.2 Any grievance appeal of a member of the bargaining unit of the AAUP - hereinafter called "the appellant" shall be handled in the following manner:

Step 1. Every attempt shall be made to resolve any grievances arising under this section speedily and informally by meetings between those directly affected.

Step 2. An appellant who has a grievance shall present an appeal in writing and signed by the appellant in the first instance to his chairperson (if the appellant is in an administrative unit with no chairperson, this step is omitted). The chairperson shall discuss the grievance with the appellant. The AAUP will be notified and may send representatives at the request of either party.

The Chairperson shall consider the appeal and shall reply in writing within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the appeal.

Step 3. If the matter is not resolved, the appellant shall file a written appeal to the Dean or Director within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the Chairperson's reply. The Dean or Director shall discuss the grievance with the Chairperson and the appellant. The AAUP will be notified and may send representatives at the request of either party.

The Dean or Director shall consider the appeal and shall reply in writing within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the appeal.

Step 4. If the matter is not resolved, the appellant shall file a written appeal to the appropriate Committee of Review of his College or Division, with copies to the Dean or Director and the AAUP within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the reply from the Dean or Director. The Committee of Review must hear the case with concern for due process: the appeal must be in writing; the appellant must be afforded the opportunity to testify, the appellant must have the opportunity to be apprised of the bases upon which all actions were taken; AAUP representatives may be present and may counsel or represent the appellant if he so desires.

The appellant and, if he so wishes, AAUP representatives, will be afforded an opportunity to obtain necessary witnesses and relevant documentary and other evidence, except letters of recommendation pertaining to initial employment. The administration will make available on a confidential basis necessary documents and other evidence within its control and insofar as it is possible for it to do so, secure the cooperation of necessary witnesses.

The appellant and the appropriate administrative officer will have the right to confront and cross-examine all the witnesses. Where a witness cannot or will not appear, but the Committee determines that the interests of justice require admission of his statement, the Committee will identify the witness and if possible, disclose his statement and provide for interrogatories.

The decision of the Committee of Review must be presented, in writing, to the appropriate Dean or Director, the appellant, the AAUP and the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The decision must address itself to the issues raised. The Committee of Review must render its decision within twenty-five (25) calendar days after the appeal was presented to the Committee. This period may be extended by mutual consent to a maximum of ninety (90) calendar days.

Step 5. If the appellant, or either party to this Agreement, is not satisfied with the written decision of the Committee of Review, a written appeal shall be sent to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, with copies to the AAUP and the appellant or Dean or Director as appropriate, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the Committee's decision. The Vice President for Academic Affairs shall consider the appeal and shall reply in writing, with copies to the appellant, the AAUP, and the Dean or Director, within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the appeal.

Step 6. In the event the matter is not resolved in Step 5, the appellant may appeal in writing, with copies to the AAUP and Vice President for Academic Affairs, to the University Appeals Committee, defined below, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the Vice President for Academic Affairs' reply. The University Appeals Committee must hear the case with concern for due process as defined in Step 4, above. The University Appeals Committee must render its decision in writing to the President, the appellant and the AAUP within twenty-five (25) calendar days after the appeal was presented to the Committee unless further time is granted by mutual consent. The decision of this Committee shall be considered advisory to the President and to the Board of Trustees. The President shall rule on the appeal in writing with copies to the appellant and the AAUP within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the recommendation of the University Appeals Committee, and the matter shall be considered resolved unless it involves a grievance as defined in 8.1 above.

Step 7. If the appellant is not satisfied with the written decision of the President and the matter involves a grievance as defined in 8.1 above, and if the AAUP concurs, it may file a written appeal within seven (7) calendar days to the American Arbitration Association for binding arbitration under its rules. The arbitration will be before a tri-party panel of three arbitrators, one appointed by the University, one appointed by the AAUP, and one selected under the AAA rules, and the decision of the arbitrators will be final and binding. The arbitrators' award shall not modify, change, add to, or subtract from any provision of this Agreement. The costs of the AAA, and its impartial arbitrator will be shared equally by the parties, and each party shall bear the costs of its own arbitrator and the presentation of its case.

8.3 The University Appeals Committee which shall be selected within thirty (30) calendar days of the signing of this Agreement shall consist of three (3) faculty members and one (1) alternate faculty member selected by the administration from a list of fifteen (15) provided by the AAUP and two (2) members and one (1) alternate of the voting faculty as defined by the Board of Trustees Bylaws, selected by the AAUP from a list of ten (10) provided by the administration. An alternate shall serve as an ad hoc member of the Committee when a regular member is unable to serve for reasons acceptable to both appointing parties.

8.4 Any written decision or written answer to an appeal made at any step which is not appealed to the succeeding step within the time limits provided, or such additional period of time as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, shall be considered a final settlement and such settlement shall be binding upon the appellant(s) and the parties to this Agreement. If a decision or written answer to an appeal is not rendered by an administrator or Committee of Review within the time limits specified in this Article, the appellant may take the next step in the procedure.

8.5 University holidays, Saturdays and Sundays shall not be counted as calendar days. Extensions of time will normally be granted for good and sufficient reasons such as illness of the appellant, problems arising from Winterim and summer, by mutual agreement.

8.6 At no step in the procedure shall a settlement be reached which is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

8.7 No provision of this Article shall infringe upon the right of the AAUP to act as the sole and exclusive Collective Bargaining Agent as provided by Article III, Recognition, of this Agreement.

8.8 Two or more members of the bargaining unit within the same college or department alleging the same difference concerning the interpretation, application or claimed violation of any provision of this Agreement may bring the same grievance under this Grievance Procedure.

8.9 A grievance filed by more than one member of the bargaining unit within the same college or department may be introduced directly in Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure provided such grievance is filed in writing within forty-five (45) calendar days after knowledge by any one such member of the occurrence of the event out of which the appeal arises.

8.10 Faculty members from different colleges alleging the same difference concerning the interpretation, application, or claimed violation of any provision of this Agreement shall have the option of bringing the same grievance under the Grievance Procedure, which may be introduced directly in Step 5, provided the following conditions are met:

(a) The grievance is filed in writing within forty-five (45) calendar days after knowledge by any one such member of the occurrence of the event out of which the appeal arises.

(b) In considering the appeal under this Section, the Vice President for Academic Affairs shall reply in writing within twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of the appeal.

9.5 It is specifically agreed that the administration, interpretation and application of the foregoing plans and programs are not subject to the grievance procedure; however, failure to make available the benefits of these plans and programs is subject to the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE X NON-DISCRIMINATION

The University and the AAUP agree not to discriminate against a faculty member because of race, creed, color, sex, age, religion, national origin or membership or non-membership in the AAUP.

ARTICLE XI FACULTY WORKLOAD

11.1 It is agreed by the parties hereto that the provisions of this Article are intended for the sole purpose of maintaining or enhancing the academic quality of the University. Except as set forth in paragraphs 4 and 5, it is further agreed that this Article shall not be used as a basis of limiting faculty workload when such limitations would interfere with matters of academic judgment.

11.2 Workload is defined as teaching, including instruction in regular academic year courses with assigned credit hours and mutually agreed upon instructional assignments, such as thesis, dissertation, seminar and special problem supervision (workload of faculty members on fiscal year contracts may include summer session courses); research, including sponsored research; advising; committee work; and University-administered, consultative, and organized activities, not only inside but also outside the University, when such activities by mutual agreement bring benefit and/or prestige to the University. The composition of a normal workload within a unit will be consistent with past practice within that unit.

11.3 Faculty will be on campus as required by their workload.

11.4 At the beginning of the 1975-76 academic year, the planned student-bargaining unit faculty ratio will not exceed 18.2 full time graduate<sup>1</sup> and undergraduate<sup>2</sup> students per member of the bargaining unit in the University as a whole and at the beginning of the 1976-77 academic year the planned student-bargaining unit faculty ratio will not exceed 18.3 full time graduate<sup>1</sup> and undergraduate<sup>2</sup> students per member of the bargaining unit in the University as a whole. It is fully agreed that these ratios may vary widely from unit to unit within the University, and among faculty members.

11.5 Except by mutual agreement the teaching and advisement portion of each individual's workload will not average in excess of 12<sup>3</sup> credit-contact hours per week per semester for the academic year, nor shall the average teaching load of the members of the unit exceed the past practice within the unit. If a teaching assignment results in an overload, extra compensation will be awarded at the prevailing rate.

11.6 Faculty members and department chairpersons (or deans or directors) are encouraged to develop a workload plan on an administered basis, i.e., in any semester teaching duties of individual faculty members may vary within a department (or unit) to permit variations in emphasis on research and other aspects of individual workload provided the total teaching and scholarly needs of the faculty member and the department (or unit) are met. The faculty member and chairperson (or dean or director) will develop in writing the workload plan for every semester at least two months prior to the beginning of the semester. Every effort will be made to develop the workload plan harmoniously.

11.7 In developing a workload plan, courses will be scheduled so that the anticipated enrollment in any course at the 500 level and above will not exceed 35.

<sup>3</sup> Each hour spent in scheduled classroom teaching counts as 1 credit-contact hour. Each hour spent in scheduled laboratory, field, or clinical instruction and individual instruction counts a ½ credit-contact hour. Scheduled individual special problems and theses count as 1 credit-contact hour, and dissertations count as 2 credit-contact hours. Thirty full-time undergraduate advisees are equivalent to 1/2 credit-contact hour.

ARTICLE XIII TOTALITY OF AGREEMENT

Both parties, for the lifetime of the Agreement each agree that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject matter referred to or not referred to or governed by or not governed by this Agreement, unless the University and the AAUP mutually agree to alter, amend, supplement, enlarge or modify any of its provisions.

ARTICLE XIV PRECEDENCE OF LAWS

In the event any provision of this Agreement, in whole or in part, is declared to be illegal, void or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or any administrative agency having jurisdiction, all of the other terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect to the same extent as if that provision had never been incorporated in this Agreement, and in such event the remainder of this Agreement shall continue to be binding upon the parties hereto.

ARTICLE XV MAINTENANCE OF PRACTICES

15.1 The parties agree to continue in effect all practices of the University Administration not covered by the terms of this Agreement governing wages, salaries, hours, vacations, sick leave, grievance procedures, academic freedom, appointment, reappointment, promotion, tenure, dismissal, termination, suspension and sabbatical leave, provided, however, that such practices are not in conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event of such a conflict, the terms of this Agreement shall be controlling.

15.2 As used in this Agreement, the term "practices of the University Administration" refers to those practices of the Office of the President, the Office of the Provost, the Offices of the Vice Presidents, the Offices of the Deans, and the Offices of Department Chairpersons, based upon written policies of the University Administration, of its Board of Trustees, and those Faculty Senate policies which are approved by the President and the Board of Trustees.

15.3 The foregoing practices of the University Administration, and the substantive decisions which follow from them, shall not be subject to the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement. However, issues regarding whether or not the established practices of the University Administration were followed will be subject to the grievance procedure provided herein.

15.4 Nothing in this Article shall be construed to amend, modify or diminish the authority of the University Administration and the Board of Trustees to establish, change or eliminate policies through their duly established procedures.

RELATION TO ARTICLE XV

Under Article XV the parties understand that the Board of Trustees, the University of Administration, and the University Faculty Senate upon approval by the Administration and the Board, have undiminished power and authority to establish change or eliminate policies.

The parties also understand that the privileges of the Faculty provided in the Trustee Bylaws to advise upon proposed policy and to recommend policy also remain undiminished by this contract.
